

WE ARE HONOURED TO INVITE YOU TO THE SEMINAR

"The Jews of Romania and their impact on the Romanian and Israeli Academies"

The seminar is held in Memory of the Profesor Nicolae Cajal the late President of the Jewish Federation of Romania.

SUNDAY, 26/01/2020, 10:00

KAPLUN LECTURE HALL (209), FACULTY OF LAW, TEL-AVIV UNIVERSITY

Program:

David Saranga, Ambassador of Israel in Romania
Forward Words

Prof. Jean Askenasy, MD. PhD. Honorary Member of the Roumanian Academy, Neurologist at Sackler School of Medicine and Buchman Faculty of Law, TAU
The purpose of the seminar

Prof. Bogdan Simionescu, Vicepresident of the Romanian Academy
Les Communautés Juives de Roumanie et l'Académie Roumaine

Prof. Moshe Idel, Prof. Emeritus Hebrew University
Jewish Thought

Prof. Shlomo G. Shoham, Director of the Forensic Science Programme of the Faculty of Law
The eternal return of universal mythology

Coffee Break

Prof. Irinel Popescu, Member of the Roumanian Academy
Nicolae Cajal-academic mind

Dragos Neltersa, Director of the Israeli-Roumanian Writers Association
The need of a maternal language

Irina Cajal, Subsecretary of State of Romania
Jaques Elias and Nicolae Cajal patriotism and sacrifice in service of Romania and message from Prof. R. Teodorescu

Bela Dan Krizbai, Secretary of State and Vice-president of the Romanian Cultural Institute
The role of national minorities in the development of Romanian culture

Dr. Lucian Zeev Herscovici,
The contribution of the Jewish Roumanian immigration to the state of Israel

Seminar Nicolae Cajal will be published in a book